

Sample Company – HR Policies

Short reference document for HR RAG / grounded Q&A; testing

1. Annual Leave Policy

Full-time employees receive 20 days of paid annual leave per calendar year. Leave should normally be requested at least 5 working days in advance through the HR system. Managers may approve exceptions for urgent circumstances.

2. Sick Leave Policy

Employees receive up to 10 paid sick days per calendar year. For an absence of more than 2 consecutive working days, the employee may be asked to provide appropriate medical documentation.

3. Work From Home Policy

Eligible employees may work from home up to 2 days per week with manager approval. Employees must remain reachable during their normal working hours and protect confidential company information while working remotely.

4. Travel & Expense Policy

Business travel must be approved before booking. Employees should submit expense claims within 15 calendar days after returning from travel. Receipts are required for individual expenses above ■1,000.

5. Parental Leave Policy

Eligible employees may receive parental leave according to applicable company policy and local law. Employees should contact HR as early as reasonably possible to plan leave and required documentation.

6. Code of Conduct

Employees are expected to act professionally, avoid conflicts of interest, protect company information, and treat colleagues respectfully. Concerns about misconduct may be reported to HR or the designated ethics channel.

7. Performance Review Policy

Employees participate in a formal performance review at least once each year. Reviews consider role responsibilities, objectives, collaboration, and demonstrated performance.
