

Company Human Resources Policy Manual

Policy Version: 2026.1

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Department: Human Resources

1. Annual Vacation Leave

All full-time employees are entitled to 20 days of paid vacation leave per calendar year.

Employees who join the company during the calendar year receive vacation leave on a prorated basis according to their joining date.

Vacation leave must be requested through the company's HR system and approved by the employee's manager before the leave begins.

2. Vacation Carryover

Employees may carry forward up to 5 unused vacation days into the following calendar year.

Unused vacation days above the 5-day carryover limit expire at the end of the calendar year unless otherwise required by applicable law.

3. Sick Leave

Full-time employees are entitled to 10 days of paid sick leave per calendar year.

Employees should notify their manager as soon as reasonably possible when they are unable to work because of illness.

4. Business Travel

Employees may claim reasonable and necessary expenses incurred while traveling for approved company business.

Business travel must be approved by the employee's manager before the trip is booked.

Employees should book economy-class airfare for domestic and international business travel.

5. Travel Expense Submission

Employees must submit travel expense claims through the company's expense management system within 15 calendar days after returning from the trip.

Receipts are required for individual expenses above $25.

The standard hotel accommodation limit is $200 per night, excluding applicable taxes.

6. Parental Leave

Full-time employees who have completed at least 6 months of continuous employment are eligible for paid parental leave.

An eligible employee who gives birth is entitled to 16 weeks of paid parental leave.

An eligible non-birth parent is entitled to 8 weeks of paid parental leave.

Employees should notify HR of their intention to take parental leave at least 30 days before the expected start date, where reasonably possible.

7. Employee Benefits

Eligible full-time employees may participate in the company's health insurance plan.

Eligible employees may participate in the company's retirement savings plan after completing 90 days of employment.

The company provides a retirement-plan matching contribution of up to 4% of eligible salary.

Employees may request reimbursement for approved professional development courses and certifications, up to $1,000 per employee per year.

Note: This is a fictional sample policy document created for demonstrating a RAG application. It should not be treated as an actual company policy.